General Overview

Students at Grove Christian School come together to study in a disciplined environment where they are challenged to reach their highest potential spiritually, academically, physically and socially. The personal appearance of the student is important in the development of character, personal responsibility, and self-image. As such, parents and students should select clothing appropriate to both an academic and a Christian atmosphere.

The intent of the dress code is both to present a student with a neat and appropriate appearance, as well as to avoid putting undue emphasis on outward appearance. Dress, grooming and appearance expectations are designed to foster pride in appearance, instill discipline, prevent disruption, and avoid safety hazards. Students are to come to school looking clean, neat, and dressed as outlined in this handbook. Student compliance with the spirit and purpose of the dress standards is important. Refer to the GCS website, www.grovechristianschool.com for the complete Dress Code list.

It is necessary that student dress reflects an atmosphere consistent with the standards of the school and that it be neat, clean and modest. Dress code compliance is the primary responsibility of the student and the parents; however, the administration reserves the right to determine if a student is dressed and groomed appropriately. Students not in compliance with dress code may be counseled privately and may be subject to disciplinary action. The dress code begins when a student arrives on campus and extends until they are dismissed to leave campus. While these standards do not apply at most community events, faculty members may privately counsel students who attend such events to change clothes should their attire be deemed inappropriate.
